

CONFERENCE

PLANNING, CONTROL & THE LAW IN THE NAQAB

(held in Arabic and Hebrew)

Adalah - The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in Israel and
The Regional Council for the Unrecognized Villages in the Naqab

Invite you to a conference on Planning, Control & the Law in the Naqab, to be held on Monday, 6 December 2004, in the Naot Medbar Hotel, Sderot Toviaho 2, Beer Sheva.

THE PROGRAM

14:30 – 15:00 Registration

15:00 – 15:15 Opening Remarks

Hussein El-Rafiya, The Regional Council for the Unrecognized Villages in the Naqab
Attorney Suhad Bishara, Adalah - The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in Israel

15:15 – 16:15 First Panel:

Policies of Planning and Control in the Naqab

Aspects of Spatial Inequality in the Allocation of Municipal Resources

Ms. Nili Barukh, Urban and Regional Planner, Bimkom - Planners for Planning Rights

Space, Settlement Policy and the Arab Community in the Naqab

Ms. Hana Hamdan, Urban and Regional Planner, Adalah

The Unrecognized Villages: Between Reality & Alternative Planning

Mr. Ibrahim Abu Sabeih, The Regional Council for the Unrecognized Villages in the Naqab

The session will be moderated by Attorney Suhad Bishara, Adalah

16:15 – 16:30 Refreshments

16:30 – 17:30 Second Panel:

Between Politics, Law and Society

Land Settlement in the Naqab from the Viewpoints of International and Comparative Law

Dr. Alexander Kedar, Haifa University

Women, Education and the Policy of Control

Ms. Sarab Abu-Rabia-Queder, Ben Gurion University

Education as a Tool of Expulsion in the Unrecognized Villages

Prof. Ismael Abu-Saad, Ben Gurion University

The session will be moderated by Attorney Morad El-Sana, Adalah

Please confirm your participation by telephone to Adalah: 04-950-1610, ext. 101.
Hebrew-Arabic simultaneous translation will be provided.