Adalah announces the formation of a Scholarship Nomination Committee, which is seeking candidates for the Open Society Justice Initiative Fellows Program at the Central European University (CEU) in Budapest, Hungary for 2010-2012. The two-year fully-funded program in English includes one year of study for an LLM in Human Rights at the CEU, and a second year of work as an attorney with Adalah.

Qualifications:

- Law degree (LLB) with excellent grades
- Member of the Israel Bar
- Strong commitment to human rights and leadership potential
- Very high degree of proficiency in English

Process:

- Submit CV and short letter of interest via email (fathiyah@adalah.org) and/or fax (04-950-3140) to Adalah's Scholarship Nomination Committee by Sunday 15 November 2009.
- Suitable candidates will be called to interview with Adalah's Scholarship Nomination Committee.
- Adalah's Committee will choose 1-2 candidates to nominate for the CEU program.
- The candidate(s) must then apply online to the CEU by 25 January 2010. The candidates must meet all of the requirements for general admission to the CEU and the CEU Legal Studies Department. See <http://www.ceu.hu/admissions/requirements> and http://web.ceu.hu/legal/prosp_students.html
