

In Commemoration of the 10th Anniversary of the October 2000 Events:

Adalah- The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in Israel, Physicians for Human Rights-Israel (PHR-I), and the Public Committee Against Torture in Israel (PCATI) invite you to a seminar and film screening:

"Bloody Sunday and October 2000: Lessons from the Struggle for Truth, Justice and Accountability"

When: Saturday, 9 October 2010, 19:00

Where: The Felicja Blumental Music Centre and Library
26 Bialik Street, Tel Aviv

Program

19:00-20:00 – Opening and Welcoming, Hadas Ziv, Executive Director, PHR-I

Panel discussion (in Hebrew)

- Moderator – Dr. Ishai Menuchin, Executive Director of PCATI
- Dr. Ruchama Marton, President and Founder of PHR-I and psychiatrist
- Attorney Hassan Jabareen, General Director of Adalah and lead lawyer for the families of the October 2000 victims
- Dr. Hala Khoury-Bisharat, Expert in International Criminal Law, Carmel Academic Center; Member of the Board of Directors of Adalah

20:00 - 20:15 – Break and light refreshments

20:15 - 21:45 – Screening of drama-documentary film "Sunday" (in English)

Sunday tells the story of "Bloody Sunday", the events of 1972 when British paratroopers shot dead 13 unarmed civilians, and wounded a further 15 persons, during a march for civil rights in Derry, Northern Ireland. The film examines the political context for 'Bloody Sunday', as well as the impact of subsequent government investigations into the events.